Sheriff's Report:

Sheriff "Big John" Cushing and his Deputy Tom Mere fined Harris for not wearing a tie and not having a real collar on his shirt. He might have been trying to pass as a member of the clergy. Charlie had worn a spotted shirt earlier this week so he was fined. Jim Thompson was digging out his money as he knew they were coming after him.

Susan Barrier

I have been married for 42 years to Sam. We previously lived in Aurora, Illinois until 2000 when we moved to Cape Coral. I have worked previously in Optical Sales, Real Estate Sales and managing our property rentals. Some of my other occupations include, working on an atom smasher, inspecting pink and blue plastic Comet cleanser cans that rolled down a line, and I was a cute little carhop at the A & W when I was sixteen years old. I have belonged to a Beta Sigma Phi Sorority for about 40 years. I have held many offices in Kiwanis in the Cape Coral Clubs. Director, Secretary, VP, and President Elect. I really enjoy meeting new people and I have always enjoyed attending the conventions when possible. I volunteer at Cape Coral Hospital on Wednesday mornings. Life is good!

A mild-mannered man was tired of being bossed around by his wife so he went to a psychiatrist.

The psychiatrist said he needed to build his self-esteem, and so gave him a book on assertiveness, which he read on the way home.

He had finished the book by the time he reached his house.

The man stormed into the house and walked up to his wife.

Pointing a finger in her face, he said, "From now on, I want you to know that I am the man of this house, and my word is law! I want you to prepare me a gourmet meal tonight, and when I'm finished eating my meal, I expect a sumptuous dessert afterward. Then, after dinner, you're going to draw me my bath so I can relax. And when I'm finished with my bath, guess who's going to dress me and comb my hair?"

"The funeral director," said his wife.
